Dear ASA Members

Based on the questions received from Members, it is clear that some members are not acquainted with ASA rules and Regulations regulating ASA Athletics Club Structures.

ASA Domestic Rule 10 defines a club as “a social order of people, from a local community, who are dedicated to Athletics and the support thereof.”

Some clubs are administered more professionally than others. In effect it means that some clubs are administered better than other clubs. The level of administration in a club, irrespective the quality of the service to its members, do not justify name calling or status of clubs.

Names calling such as Corporate Club, Stand-Alone Club, Community Club, etc., do not define the quality of the service provided to the members. With regards to the names of clubs please refer to ASA Rules and Regulations 24:12&13.

Lastly, some clubs are financially supported by the corporate world and in some cases even have the corporate as part of the club name. The name of a club has one primary function only: ASA Rules and Regulations 24.12.2 states “The club name should identify the community where the club is domicile to assist Referees and Officials to fulfil their functions accurately.”

The evaluation form attached give guidance to Provincial Policy Makers and Administrators as to how clubs should be evaluated by the domicile provinces.

Athletics greetings
